

Parental Notification Policy

The Dean of the College and student affairs staff may notify parents when they have knowledge of circumstances adversely affecting a student, including hospitalization for life-threatening or other serious illnesses; hospital visits for alcohol poisoning; misconduct that is likely to result in a loss of housing, suspension, or expulsion; serious behavioral or mental health issues; and an unsatisfactory academic record that may jeopardize continued enrollment.

Policy effective as of August 2011